

7 Questions for those who
call Lnug

Africans in Nova Scotia

Narrative

Saqmaw Brooks-Lnug

1. How many African nations declared war on Europe as a result of losing large amounts of their populations to the slave trade?
2. How many African nations have memorial days to honour their lost?
3. How many months could a human being survive submersed in raw human excrement, or sewage?

4. How many African nations carry in their cultural-memory traditional stories about the 'Great Disappearance'?
5. Genocide is an attempt to eliminate an entire genotype, how many, successful genocides have been carried out?
6. At least 105 dedicated slave ships would have been required to carry 12 million Africans to the Americas non-stop, and without falter from the beginning of US slavery in 1619 to the end in 1808. How many dedicated slave ships are known to have existed?

7. The European slave trade in the United States ran from 1619-1808, which is 189 years, while in Canada it ran from 1501 - 1834 which is 333 years. How many direct slave ships arrived from Africa?

If you answered zero to all these questions congratulations you are right!

And we have much more to discuss.

Photo: 1 is Philippe Rousseau's "Mi'kmaw Boy of Cape Breton" 1st displayed 1863

Photo: 2 is Algonquin Saqmaw George M. Cook of the Pamunkey
www.Lnug.ca